

Media Release

7 September 2015

CMA Annual Conference and 16th Annual Industry Awards

Complementary Medicines Australia (CMA) have opened registrations to attend the CMA Annual Conference and 16th Annual Industry Awards on the 29th of October, 2015 at Doltone House – Jones Bay Wharf in Sydney.

Carl Gibson, CEO of Complementary Medicines Australia said “Preparations are in full swing for the complementary medicines industry event of the year. Last year’s conference was sold out weeks before the event, and we have already seen a record number of delegates who have already jumped to take advantage of the discounted early bird rates.”

“Rest assured we have booked a bigger and better venue at Doltone House – Jones Bay Wharf this year, but with 50% of conference and dinner places sold already we are encouraging people to register soon to avoid missing out!”

Early bird registrations close on the 11th of September.

Sponsorship for both the conference and the industry awards has completely sold out. We thank our sponsors and those who are keen to support our industry.

The program is being finalised and will be released in the coming weeks.

We are pleased to announce the following confirmed speakers:

- 5 internationally renowned speakers including Michael Smith from the American Botanical Council. Click here for more information on Michael Smith
- Professor John Skerritt National Manager of the Therapeutic Goods Administration
- Dr Ross Walker, Integrative Cardiologist
- Plus presentations from Euromonitor, China Health Care Association and many more fascinating speakers

Industry Awards Nominations Now Open!

Nominations for the prestigious Industry Awards are now open, with Kitty Flannigan confirmed as our headline entertainer. Closing date for Awards Nominations is Friday 9th October 2015. This is a great opportunity to recognise and showcase the achievements of both companies and individuals involved in the complementary medicines industry.
