

Regulatory Forum - 29 April 2020

8:30-	Registration
9.00-9.15	Opening Address & Welcome	Michael Micallef Chair CMA Regulatory Policy
9.15-10.30	Reforms and the Regulation of Complementary Medicines Key activities 2020 Review of Evidence Guidelines and ARGCM Publication of post-market compliance review results TGA assessed claims Monographs project Future proofing TGA's IT infrastructure	Dr Cheryl McRae Assistant Secretary Complementary & OTC Medicines Branch Therapeutic Goods Administration, Australian Government Department of Health
10.30 - 11.15	Leading Complementary Medicine Research New approval pathway for TGA 'assessed' listed medicines Data protection mechanisms Research highlights in the public health space	Alan Bensoussan Director, NICM Health Research Institute
11:15-11:30	Morning Tea
11.30 - 12.30	Evidence to support indications for complementary medicines Updating Evidence Guidance Material TGO 92 finalisation Responding to Post Market Reviews and Compliance Check Lists	Dr Adam Cook Director, Listing Compliance Section, Therapeutic Goods Administration, Department of Health
12:30-1:00	Australia Made: Country of Origin Labelling for Complementary Medicines Case study on Australian Made Advocacy Opportunities from the passing of the Competition and Consumer (Australian-made Complementary Medicines) Regulations 2019	Ben Lazzaro, CEO Australia Made Campaign Limited
1.00 – 2.00	Lunch break
2:00-2.45	Sports Supplements Update Recent changes to the regulation of sports supplements in Australia	Nicholas Mercieca Regulatory Specialist, RDC Global
2:45-3.45	Advertising Code and Compliance Trends The application of the Therapeutic Goods Advertising Code, the approvals process and complaints mechanisms. Preparing for the removal of pre-approvals	Leanne McCauley Director, Advertising Education and Assurance Section Regulatory Education and Compliance Branch, Therapeutic Goods Administration, Department of Health and Nicole McLay Assitant Secretary, Regulatory Education and Compliance Branch, Therapeutic Goods Administration, Department of Health
	Natural claims on medicines What does natural mean when used in advertisements for CMs	Lucy Lang, Head of Regulatory Affairs, CMA
3:45	Afternoon Tea
4:15-4:45	CMA's Regulatory Policy Review and Forward Focus Q & A Panel Session	Michael Micallef, Lucy Lang TGA Representatives TBC
4:45-5:00	Wrap up, thank you and close	Michael Micallef Chair CMA Regulatory Policy

Program subject to change.