CMA Welcomes New Health Minister Greg Hunt's appointment as a Healthy Boost

Complementary Medicines Australia (CMA) has welcomed the appointment of Greg Hunt as the new Federal Health Minister.

Mr Carl Gibson, Chief Executive of CMA, said: "We welcome the appointment of Greg Hunt as Health Minister. Reforms to the regulation of complementary medicines are at a critical stage - and we hope that Mr Hunt will continue to drive the Government's focus on cutting red tape and encouraging innovation."

"Complementary medicines can play an important role in the Government's preventive healthcare agenda – as well as providing a healthy boost to the economy."

"The Australian complementary medicines industry holds great potential to contribute further to the strength of high-skill local manufacturing, employment opportunities, research and growth in exports. CMA looks forward to working with Mr Hunt to drive a healthy reform agenda, supporting jobs and growth," said Mr Gibson.
